MARGUERITE CLARK In Paramount Pictures

THE popularity of Marguerite Clark is like the popularity of the place where gold is discovered; everybody lights out for it in quick order.

Gold?—let's go!
Marguerite Clark?—let's go!

And it isn't her astonishing beauty alone—her charm of face and slender figure—which pull you, is it?

There is something more. Marguerite Clark is a consummate actress. She understands the human heart—your heart—and you know how deeply her sunny ways affect you.

She appears wherever Paramount Pictures appear. If you miss a Paramount Picture starring Marguerite Clark you know what you miss and how much delight—don't you?—so it's up to you!

Here's a partial list of her Paramount successes

|                        |                    |
|------------------------|--------------------|
| Wildflower             | The Valentine Girl |
| The Crucible           | The Amazons        |
| The Goose Girl         | Bab's Diary        |
| Gretna Green           | Bab's Burglar      |
| Still Waters           | Bab's Matinee Idol |
| Miss George Washington | The Seven Swans    |
| Snow White             | Prunella           |
| The Fortunes of Fifi   | Rich Man, Poor Man |
|                        | Uncle Tom's Cabin  |

There will be eight new Marguerite Clark-Paramount Pictures for the season of 1918-19.

These two trade-marks are the sure way of identifying Paramount and Artcraft Pictures — and the theatres that show them
